

We train first-aiders with the know-how and courage to act.

We strengthen Finland's overall preparedness

We are a part of the preparedness and response framework of the Red Cross and the whole country.

We are a responsible operator

We are a responsible workplace. . As a social enterprise, our proceeds go towards the domestic operations of the Finnish Red Cross.

Our goal is to have people who can administer first aid in every home and at every workplace.

Olemme ensiapukoulutusten edelläkävijä

Continuous development, utilisation of technology and controlled change ensure the sustainability and pioneering nature of our operations.

We are a reliable partner

Our partnership and expert programmes bring value to our network which is an important part of national first aid preparedness.
